RHB appoints Yong as Asian head of institutional equities

Issue: Daily News - 6 November 2013

Keywords: RHB, Malaysia, Singapore, head of institutional equities, DMG and Partners Securities, appointment

Malaysia's RHB Investment Bank has hired industry veteran Lena Yong Oi Ling as the head of institutional equities for Asia.

Yong boasts a sales career that spans 25 years and joins from UOB Kay Hian, Singapore where she was the head of institutional sales for Asia. Her time in the industry also saw her work at CLSA, Macquarie, SG Warburg Securities and UBS.

As part of RHB's Singapore investment banking arm – DMG and Partners Securities – Yong is based in Singapore and oversees the institutional equities division, which covers markets such as Hong Kong, Indonesia, Malaysia, Singapore and Thailand.
